I do not think he understands.. Because I have gone after him many times. This time I am not coming back to him. He broke my heart and all of this stuff behind my back was not necessary. He could have been honest and just gone back to China when he was in Indonesia. I was very different with him and I truly thought he cared for me and loved me. Loved me enough not to take drugs or to cheat. I asked him upfront that if he wanted an open relationship to let me know . This way I could decide .. if I wanted that or not .. either way I should have a choice and he should too.. instead , I get hypocrisy and double standards thrown in my face .. when he is the one doing it.

I am Ildiko Baldwin, I live at 18280 Deuce Road, North Fort Myers, FL 33971. I can be reached directly at 239-810-6166.

I would like to start that I like both of the individuals in this declaration and was hoping that they would work things out. Unfortunately, I have been in the middle both to mediate be a witness to the many issues that they have discussed. Unfortunately, I was witness to the last conversation they both had together. Hui asked me by text to be witness to a conversation on the speakerphone. I said no at first but Mike convinces me to do it anyway. Mike is Miguel Rivera but our family calls him

On this important day, many things are discussed but not a very good subject as it has a lot of bombs. Hui starts with a discussion of his personal issues and how Mike is accusing him of drugs. Mike asks him to admit to who put the drugs in the bathroom light above the mirror. He said Mike did or someone that he is not doing drugs. Mike said if you didn't and I did not for sure? The Ghost? The Elf? Maybe the housekeeper that you accused that's almost 65 years old? He told him that he needed to be honest that we would all help him.

||Áç^|•ā|}Áse;åÁ^•][}•āç^Ása^&|zetzenā|}Áset^Ása Ásecczes@[^}ofFÉA

He really drove us that are helping him nuts. He definitely has issues and to us who know better, there are definitely some issues. He has been telling us stories and we fell for it. He is really nice at first and sweet. Kind of innocent but he is very manipulative.

sorry, my brother .. doesn't bother me anymore .. grieved enougth

About what he was saying to me. There are too many untruthful things. Like he put a camera in the room. Csilla had my hair tested. His dick was tested positive. And many. But he didn't think what if I test negative. And If I am tested negative but he has told me and you his dick was tested positive. Then he must have had sex with others. Only he cheated. He can be tested positive. Right? And I have the right to call them lies and him a liar. I understand we both were hyper. But During the time. He was threatening me and telling me he could call a police and he has a strong family so that he can get away from it. And his boss would take care of him even a lawsuit. Not too convincing actually I think. Even he was telling me. As an Asian foreigner I am not covered that much. I don't have any rights here. Things like that. Ildo can also see him texted I don't have any rights in the group text. He said those things for many times. Even I knew it's not true. Just like I knew he was lying when he was telling me. The police has my fingerprints and my DNA. As long as he reports I will be in the jail. Many things like that. I didn't fight back or defend myself for for those. Because I was not only shocked but also very disappointed. And also I didn't know what to say or act back.

I started to feel he could be dangerous to me. He can be very extreme when he wants something And I think he knew he has been lying about things. Just he doesn't want to admit. I guess he has convinced himself. And no matter how many things he needed to create. He insisted what he has convinced himself. I guess maybe you guys can feel or have seen already. When he describes something he likes. He makes the good sounds better and the bad sounds worse. This is only my thinking. And I think it's no good no bad. Everyone does. But the levels are different. Just what he has done to me was too extreme. And I don't want to deliver the wrong information

Dinghui Deng

Hey ildi. I am little bit confused. Since he told you we are divorced why was he still asking you to tell me he wants me to come back one year later and also about his surgery and other things. I think there's no need to tell me that. And honestly I am going to have my protection order soon.. so it's also gonna make you not reach out to me. I hope you can understand because I have to do that. Only that way I can get rid of him and move forward. And I am also confused about he telling you we are divorced. I haven't even signed anything or do anything about the divorce. So we are divorced? It's too ridiculous to hear or even believe. And right now is the only time I need some cash to support myself but he told you he can give it to me afterwards. Well. It's just like when I need my own things he takes them away. And when I don't need that he will give them back so he thinks he is a good person? He doesn't give a shit about me that's why I am in this kind of situation again and again and again. I really really don't need any fake kindnesses from him. What he has done and had done to me are not only illegal but also not unethical. He treated me as his husband like a toy or some trash. When he needs me he gives me pretty words. But when he doesn't. He throws me off like nothing. I guess you couldn't understand how much damage he did. I was vomiting with blood on 20th tonight the way to the shelter because my heart hurt so badly like hell. That's why I called you the next day even I can always hold myself up from pains or any kinds of

And I appreciate you and our friendship. But I really feel very uncomfortable and hurt every time you told me things about him. And trust me. I never want to see him again even I still love him. And the deeper my love is the stronger my hate is. So even you didn't ask me or request me to stay away from him. I won't. And to be honest with you as a friend. I didn't like the way you told me things about if I do you will be a way and if I don't you will be another way. That's not nice to say. I appreciate you because even you just talked to me because I really needed those. And I hope you can treat me like a friend so that we can have a friendship. If you feel like you can command me or order me to do things. I think that's overstep.

and in short. After I order a protection. We actually shouldn't talk or communicate. I am sorry about that I hope this won't upset you. Because I am really trying to respect you and no offense.

I love him more than my own life! I can't believe you don't understand this! He thinks I don't love him. He thinks based on what you guys said . I don't care about him . I pushed to hard to get him to just tell me the truth about the days . What right do I have to treat him this way . I don't care who is wrong or right . I am thankful I am alive . I am broken-hearted. That's not the real issue! He is my soul-mate, partner and my husband. I and anyone should not tell him otherwise. You have the paperwork. I said if that's he cars s out is to just stay only to divorce me . Then tell him we are not married. I was angry when I said this. You know we are based on the documents. I easily keep here The paperwork from Seattle is here. I already dropped the case . I love him . You told him to back to China. You know, I woke up screaming his name after surgery. He is not the only one crazy. I am too ., He is everything to me .

You guys need to stop pushing me. I am mentally not stable these months. A lot of stuff I found out We are supposed to go through things. I made a decision when I said my vows for better or worse, really hurts me. He and you both have to understand I did trust him with my heart I did not trust his in sickness and in health. I never said those things lightly. I was wanting him to admit things to help actions and behaviors. That is different! He did things to push me to react. My heart stayed true no him this time. When he said he spoke to his mom and was getting tickets and leaving. I trusted and matter what he did or o discovered My heart I cannot push to not love him I accepted in for good believed him. It was hurting all those days . I was faking my days everyday. Lying to myself. I was and bad a long time ago in Hangzhou. I knew he wasn't telling me everything, but I understand him and figure things we change on there own with time. He certainly may not understand or agree It's shocked when I saw him upstairs and had already been angry and depressed. He lied and was there. I thought he was manipulating me again. I saw again after being depressed spoke security and the neighbor too as no one was to be upstairs. He thinks I am tracking and hacking ?I was not why I stopped him with luggage or take his passport to prevent him from leaving no! To prevent the I was too sick for any of that . The cop told me he was saying I was abusing him. They had to take extreme situations it would get to. These are the situations we both have to deal with. We love hard him out. If knew he did not have a place he could have stayed and we could have worked things out. and get mad at each other equally hard. He has his way and I have mine. I know he loves me. He is I don't even know where he is and no one told me. The only thh thing the lady cop told me . I could heartbroken and i am equally heartbroken. At the end that man is my heart. I never gave it freely to not contact him. If he leaves because he wants to and it's his decision on right reasons . I have to anyone but him .. I talk to people knowing I would never to cheat on him and emotionally still accept it. He failed us and I failed us. He is not a bad person. I had to concentrate at the time on m Connected to him. I never expected the same . I only hoped he loved me the same. I have not been health at the moment you know. I could have died at the moment from all the trigger stress if these able to eat for weeks now. You see how much I lost . Can't sleep, see me calling you late at night problems . My family as you can see are hard on me . Now, I chose him over my family Now , I have and remy scolding me as well. You guys don't understand the connection. In my heart he was my deal with the extreme pain of not being with him. I really don't want to live without him. It's why I am husband in Hangzhou. He never can look at anyone the same. I am ok with you telling him . All you guys Shiism have told him those two weeks he was in the apartment to talk to me. When management pushed me to do the protective order was to stop him from upstairs. There was a governor mandate and

He was violating it. You know the were threatening eviction. Then he calls the police thinking I changed locks . The letter from management show I did not. He told them he was leaving and they change locks. The day I did the order the judge said do you understand you should not be focusing on any of this .. I said yes, but I love him. She understood and was nice and made sure the order was not the norms hard one. They let him contact me and everything. She said maybe this might

To his senses and admit things and get help: that was the reason .. not to kick him out or leave him on the shelter. I didn't even know about the shelter until I was told ... I don't understand either why the shelter. Still he called me and I don't know why when I am at the hospital. Text me I dot care be good to die or not? I don't even know . management tell later he wanted his deposit . They told me what they said. I don't even cash then and they can't give us money back. I said don't know what he will use it for and expected him to have common sense and speak to you guys and work things out. That was a disappointment and my fantasy. All this time, angry texting over test results. I really didn't care about that .. the judge did not even know about that nor she cared about that If he thinks , I didn't know the guy who text me on blue was him No clerk is allowed to discuss the situation would I loose there job. The lawsu alone would cripple the city. I and the judge only cared about making sure he was safe and gets help and the same for me on my mental state After all I came close to not being here . Again! For what ? I thought things would be different here. I was sadly wrong

You don't need to defend yourself or your mistakes. However, to take a position to walk away from the situation after a person basis their decision on your views, opinions or suggestions is irresponsible, lacks accountability and looks bad in regards to integrity. You should fix your mistakes in this situation.. especially if you are being humble. Otherwise. I will not look at this situation as resolved and will put a huge wedge between us . You truly overstepped in some areas . Should have told him not to speak to you those days while he was staying with me. You never told me he was texting you during those days. I am seriously not happy.

Ildiko Baldwin

Well we all make mistakes including you In my defense I was forced to be the witness and listen in the phone conversation which I told both of you I did not wanted to be involved at all but I really did it for you so dont be so ungratful to me I was just doing what you asked me to do and many manybtimes I told you I was going to block him but I dint which now lam thinking about it I should have afterall . If he wants to talk to me I will listen but you Really put me in the middle of this and you are not seeing it maybe one day you will You say I over stepped Really???? Wow You do know I tell it how it is and I dont hold back and only one way road dont you ever say that to me !!!!!! You dont think for a minute that Iam not mad ????? I just want you to be healthy safe and happy that is all

So please. Don't text me or try to reach out to me. I answered you due to manners. I can simply block you. So I hope you don't make me keep blocking people from him. I am too tired of all the drama and his endless broken promises and lies. I want to clarify myself again. I am moving forward. So please keep the distance between us. And don't remind me of him or text me anything. Thanks
